Product Description:

Allsheng Isothermal Fluorescence PCR is mainly used for sample isothermal amplification and Fluorescence real-time detection, it widely used in rapid detection of pathogenic microorganisms(including viruses, bacteria, mycoplasma fungi and parasites etc.), sanitary inspection of foodstuffs and environmental monitoring, meanwhile, it also can be used in sex identification of animal embryos, as well as genetically modified food(GMF) detection. User-friendly operation system can make results directly interpreted, APP mobile software makes real-time detection come true while the built-in battery design makes the outdoor use possible.

Features

Easy operation

- 1. The negative and positive results are directly interpreted without any other calculations.
- 2. With 7 inch touchscreen, stand-alone operations like settings, detection, interpretation and save are available, no need connecting computer.
- 3. User-friendly software with two-channel fluorescence detection to match with different requirements of kits.

Convenient for outdoors portability

- 1. Small size with rechargeable batteries makes detection real-time anywhere.
- 2. Portable test box which is easy equip with other instruments to improve the efficiency of the experiment.

More reliable results

- 1. Side light detection system which makes minimum detection of 20ul reaction volume possible.
- 2. Accurate temperature control, temperature difference between wells less than 0.15°C, the temperature control accuracy can reach to 0.1
- Real-time monitoring of fluorescence signal which avoiding subjective error caused by manual interpretation.

Smart system

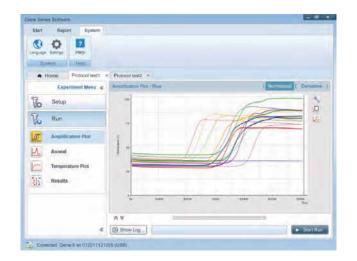

- 1. Apart from embedded software, mobile APP and PC software are also available.
- Real-time data transmission by mobile APP.
- 3. Data statistic function can record experimental parameters and original data, easy for retrospect.

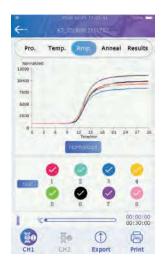

>> Isothermal Amplification Technology

Isothermal Amplification Technology is a new technology of Nucleic Acid Isothermal Amplification(NAIA) after PCR technology. Compared with traditional PCR technology, it simplifies instruments and greatly reduces reaction time, therefore, it has great application value and becomes a new favourite molecular diagnosis industry.
